

THE MASTER'S UNIVERSITY

Accreditation Information for
The Master's University & Seminary

The Master's University & Seminary (TMUS) is accredited by the WASC Senior College and University Commission. TMUS obtained its initial accreditation from WASC in spring 1975, and has received its most recent reaffirmation of accreditation in spring 2009.

The University is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM) which certifies that TMUS has met the Association's standards for music degrees and verifies the quality of the music program on a national level.

The University is approved by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing to offer programs leading to a California SB2042 preliminary multiple-subject teaching credential or to a California SB2042 preliminary single-subject teaching credential in selected subject areas.
